Governor Gilchrist sent the following special message to the legislature

State of Florida, Executive Chamber, Tallahassee, Fla., April 27, 1909. Gentlemen of the Legislature.

I herewith inclose to you for your consideration verified copies of resolutions passed by the Marion Camp, No. 56, United Confederate Veterans under date of April 24, 1909. I also inclose to you verified copy of a letter. of the committee representing Ocala Camp, No. 56, United Confederate Veterans.

I have the honor to be, very respect-ALBERT W. GILCHRIST. Governor.

Ocala, Fla., April 24, 1909. Hon, Albert W. Gilchrist, Tallahassee, Fla.

Dear Sir-Inclosed please find resolutions passed by our camp this day. Kindly give the same your careful consideration, and oblige, yours truly

L. M. Graham, H. C. Martin, J. S. Weatherly, M. L. Payne, M. Atkinson, J. H. Livingston, W. W. Jackson, W. E. McGahagin, C. C. Priest, W. C. Jeffords, committee, Ocala Camp, No. 56, U. C. V.

Heatiquarters Marion Camp, No. 56, U. C. V.

Ocala, Fla., April 24, 1909. "Whereas, The present levy of 4

the general assembly of the state of town council should submit same to appear upon the map, and an agreelaw so as to reduce all pensions to $100 per annum; be it

"Resolved, further, That we recommend that the state board of pensions shall appoint one or more suitable persons pension inspectors and qualify them with the power to subpoena witnesses and compel them to testify under oath, whose duty it shall be to visit every county and investigate persons who are drawing pensions not in accordance with the laws of 1907. Every person charged with drawing a pension fraudulently shall also be notified and allowed to testify and to produce witnesses in his or her defense, and the inspector shall write out all testimony on both sides of the case and require each one to sign the same under oath, and forward it to the state board of pensions, and if a majority of said board so decide, that name shall thereafter be dropped from the pension roll. The board shall pay the inspectors whatever they decide is a fair compensation for their services out of the pension fund.

(It will be noticed that Gov. Gilchrist makes no comment on the correspondence, but it is the general opinion that the present pension law as it stands, should be amended so that only those crippled by the war or in straitened circumstances, should receive pensions. As it now stands every man in the state who served in the Confederacy is entitled to a pension, and many of these men are actually wealthy.

The payment of this pension money has greatly crippled the state's finances and it is the hope of the people that the present legislature will materially change the present law, so as to stop this wholesale pension paying. No one objects to the disabled old soldiers, who gallantly fought for the lost cause, from being taken care of in their declining years, but that wealthy and well to do people should get this pension money is objected to by the great mass of Floridians .-Ed. Proposed New Charter for Town

A petition with a large number of signatures has been gotten up asking that the legislature grant a new charter to the town of Titusville, and annuling the present one in case the new one is granted. The new charter has been completed and will be sent to Tallahassee at once. It proposes some radical changes from the present charter among which will be how they avoided one or whether the power to raise assessment of they paid both. Later, however, property without regard to county | they voted and paid taxes in Massaand state valuation; the right to levy chusetts only, notwithstanding the special taxes; to increase the millage; provide for fire department, electric mills for pensions for the soldiers and light equipment, etc.; provide for their widows of the late Confederate street improvements, keeping up carried on until 1804, when a comarmy and state troops is inadequate stock, etc., etc. The charter comto pay the amount now allowed; be it prises something like thirty pages of several similar disputes between the Resolved. That we recommend that typewritten copy. We think the two states besides those which now Florida, now in session, pass such the people of Titusville through the acts or amend the present pension newspapers, so the people could be well informed.

A Wedding Ring Story.

It was the habit of Rev. James Spurgeon, grandfather of the great preacher of that name, to pray each evening under a certain oak tree in secluded wood in Honeywood park. One night he dreamed, the story goes, that Satan appeared and threatened to tear him in pieces if he followed his accustomed route to the tree. There was another path by which he might go in safety. Remembering his dream, Spurgeon felt sorely tempted the next night to take the route in which Satan was not. But this would be to capitulate. Trembling in every limb, he made his way by the path in which the danger lay. He reached his goal in safety and in prayer and song returned thanks for delivery from peril. When his prayer had ended he rose to return. his path lay a piece of solid gold "as large as a curtain ring." inquiry failing to discover an owner, he retained it and when he married had his wife's wedding ring made from his curious find.

Good News For the Editor. When Kitty sings my muse takes flight

I sit entranced; I cannot write. Such was the refrain of the budding poet's latest production, and when it reached the hands of the weary editor, who had been bombarded by bushels of unavailable outpourings from the same source, he promptly sent it back, with the following terse and businesslike in-

"Glad to hear it! Keep Kitty right on the job! Any time that she strikes for higher wages let me know, and I will make up the difference myself rather than have her stop."-New York Times.

A CROOKED BOUNDARY.

the Poculiar Lines That Di-

If you will look on the map of New England you will see two curious irregularities in the dividing line between Massachusetts and Connecticut. One of them is in Granby township, a little northwest of Hartford, and the other in Enfield township, on the Connecticut river, south of Springfield. It is a standing conundrum why, so long as the boundary is imaginary, they did not make it straight instead of crooked. But thereby hangs a tale.

Those two little jogs on the map are monuments to human obstinacy and to the persistency which is one of the chief traits of the Yankee character. The ancestors of the farmers who own those little spots of ground preferred to live in Massachusetts rather than in Connecticut and fought for their preference until they had their way.

The controversy began in 1713 and continued for 112 years before it was finally decided. In 1724 the question was appealed to England, but the government was so much engrossed in the Seven Years' war that it was never brought to the attention of the crown. Up to the outbreak of the Revolution both states continued to levy taxes and send notices of fast days and elections to the farmers who occupied the land, and there is no record of protest of the county authorities in Connecticut. In 1793, after peace was restored, both states appointed promise was reached. There were ment was reached by which Massachusetts consented to surrender her claim to a strip of territory in Woodstock and Suffield townships, provided Connecticut would vield her claims to the other tracts in dispute. No action, however, was taken upon the report.

In 1810 the controversy was revived by some legal proceeding, and another commission was appointed, but if it ever reached a conclusion there is no record to be found. In 1820 a third commission was intrusted with the settlement, and after two years they decided upon the present boundary line, which was adopted by the legislature of both states.-Exchange.

Redeeming Time.

Dean Swift, when he claimed the degree of A. B., was so deficient as to obtain it only by "special favor," a term used to denote lack of merit. Of this disgrace he was so ashamed that he resolved to study eight hours a day, and he continued this industry for seven years, with what improvement is sufficiently known. This part of his history deserves to be remembered. It may, says a commenter, afford useful admonition to young men who, having lost one part of life in idleness and any case of catarrh that cannot be cured by pleasure, are tempted to throw away the remainder of it.

"Have you thrown the cow into the antiseptic tank?"

"Yes." "Have you washed the can with carbolic acid solution?"

"I have." "Have you plunged into the germ destroying bath yourself?" "Certainly!"

"All right. Go ahead, now, and take the cow into the airtight glass cage, but keep on the lookout that no stray bacteria get into the milk." -Bohemian.

Summer Fertilizing

Citrus Trees

This is a very important application, for a liberal supply of food at this time increases the size of the fruit and gives a large bearing surface for next year's crop. You cannot afford to economize (?) on fertilizer. Neither should you delay about applying it. Nature calls for help in May and this is the time when fertilizer will do the trees the most good. Later applications prolong the growth and therefore the maturing of the fruit, thus making the crop late and sapping the vitality of soil. Write to us about them and ask for our booklet, "Good Old Summer Time in the Orange Groves."
